

Angela Weinberger, Intercultural Coach I Global Mobility Expert I Managing Director

Angela Weinberger has lived in Germany, Switzerland, UK, India and Australia. After her graduation in "International Business Studies" of the University of Paderborn, she worked in Human Resources specializing in Global Mobility during her corporate career at a large global bank and one of the Big 4 Professional Services Firms in Germany and later Switzerland.

Angela is known in the German-speaking world as a Global Mobility Expert. She started her company Global People Transitions GmbH in 2012. She offers career and executive coaching to expats and their spouses through programmes.

She also works with expats on improving their intercultural communication and prepares expat families for their stint in Switzerland through intercultural training. She consults HR Professionals on how to improve the international assignment experience for expats, their spouses and families. Her working languages are English and German, but she also communicates in French, Spanish, understands Swiss German and learns Arabic.

Angela is a professional certified coach by Dr. Eva Kinast, Munich. She is also a member of the International Coaching Federation and certified as an intercultural trainer by the Summer Institute of Intercultural Communication in Portland, Oregon. She also has a background in systemic consulting. As a volunteer Angela supports the Powerhouse Collective in Zurich, an association to support global women in their professional development. Angela is on the board of SIETAR Switzerland (Society for Intercultural Education, Training and Research in Switzerland). Angela is a certified Intercultural Development Inventory (IDI) Qualified Administrator.

She is a published author for international assignment processes into and out of Germany. It is about providing information regarding basics of international employee assignments. The book provides the whole process of making a decision to post an employee efficiently; furthermore all the legalities have been understood and dealt with according to the requirements.

Angela published another ebook in 2014: “The Global Mobility Workbook – A Step-by-Step Guide for Managing international Assignments”.

As a public speaker you can book Angela to talk about "Succeeding in Interviews through Storytelling" and “Cultural Aspects of Finding a Job in Switzerland“ or other topics related to entrepreneurship.

You can connect with Angela Weinberger by joining her on social networks. Angela is on most social media sites:

LinkedIn

Facebook

Twitter: @GPTransitions.